

The Best Things In Life,

like fine wine and great racehorses, the most meaningful moments, and great success, are built on layers. Years of work, generations of breeding, of taking risks and facing challenges.

Being commissioned to capture those years in a single magical moment, and in the layers of paint on my canvas, is my greatest honour and privilege – and the biggest reward is seeing the emotion on my clients' faces when they see their painting for the first time.

Just as only a select few of the very best thoroughbreds achieve greatness, only a limited number of commissions are accepted each year – just as a young horse needs time and the right care to produce his best, my work takes time, care and craftsmanship to create a work of art to be treasured for generations, one that will give you pleasure and moments of meaning every day.

Why should you entrust me with your precious memories? Behind my art is a lifetime working with, and a deep love and appreciation for horses, and the values and work ethic that come from a life on the land. And unlike your investment in these magnificent equine athletes, your investment in my work is guaranteed. Quite simply, if you don't absolutely love your painting once you get it home, you won't have to pay for it – you can't get better odds than that. I know my business is built on your satisfaction, and my success lies in the celebration of yours.

“Future Legacy”

*Original Oil on Canvas,
